City of Stockton Accepting Applications for Commissions

(Stockton, CA) - The City of Stockton is currently accepting applications for the Climate Action Plan Advisory Committee and Measure W Oversight Committee. To be considered for appointment, those interested must submit an application online at www.stocktonca.gov/bcvacancies. The City will be accepting applications until the vacancies are filled.

The Climate Action Plan Advisory Committee is a ten (10) member committee that serves as an advisory body to the City Council and makes recommendations on Climate Action Plan activities within the City of Stockton. There are three (3) vacancies, two (2) for the environmental category and one (1) for the labor category. The term of service is for two (2) years to begin immediately upon appointment and end September 30, 2017, with no term limit. Members meet once a month, and there is no remuneration. To qualify, applicants must be registered to vote and must live within the city limits of Stockton throughout the term of service. Applicants must have experience in either the environmental or labor categories to be considered.
